Welcome

We're wrapping up the year with creative workshops, practical support, family fun and plenty of festive making.

Explore new technology, build everyday skills, meet inspiring authors or get hands-on with craft, science and sustainability. However you want to finish 2026, there's something here to help you learn, connect and create.

A friendly reminder that our ongoing programs will take a short break from Monday 14 December, returning Wednesday 27 January.
